

AGROLOGIST (ARTICLING) – 16 MONTH TEMPORARY

Competition Number: SWA-03-2010-11

Date: ASAP – October 31, 2011

Location: Swift Current

Hourly Rate: $23.64

Headquartered in Swift Current and reporting to the Director, Projects and Partnerships and/or a more senior Agrologist, you will provide agronomic and environmental expertise and support to both internal and external partners. Assignments will specifically focus on activities related to evaluation, analysis and extension on ecological function, watershed health, non-point source pollution, and/or habitat conservation.

Typical duties and responsibilities may include the following:

- Provide technical and administrative extension advice and expertise to agricultural producers, NGOs, other governmental agencies, community groups, universities and schools, wildlife groups, and watershed groups;
- Undertake investigations including mapping and the collection and analysis of ecological health assessments, soil and vegetation data;
- Undertake research, planning, testing, monitoring and analysis activities with clients regarding ecologically sustainable rangeland management, livestock management and production, tame forage management, cropping practices, habitat management, and vegetation, soil and water use;
- Assist in developing educational material regarding accepted ecologically sustainable agronomic practices;
- Prepare and present technical reports, assist in developing land-use management plans, and communicate results with clients and management;
- Undertake other related agronomic activities as required.

An employee in this position will spend a majority of time in a field environment with regular absences from headquarters including overnight stays.

Applicants must possess a Bachelor's Degree in Agriculture or a related discipline, membership as an Articling Agrologist (AAG) with the Saskatchewan Institute of Agrologists and a valid driver's license. Applicants should have the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with staff, external agencies and the public.
